About the workshop:

Sustainable Development stands for meeting the needs of the present generation without jeopardizing the ability of future generations to meet their own needs – in other words, a better quality of life for everyone, now and for generations to come. It offers a vision of progress that integrates immediate and longer-term objectives, local and global action and regards social, economic and environmental issues as inseparable and interdependent components of human progress. This requires profound changes in thinking, in economic and social structures and in consumption and production patterns.

The workshop has been planned with an objective of bringing the environment managers and academicians to seriously deliberate on these key developmental issues for two days for Sustainable Development.

Broad contents:

1. Alternate Energy Resources – Solar/ Wind/ Biofuels
2. Current technologies in pollution prevention – Waste water/ air pollution technologies
3. Environmental Geotechnics – Landfills, Ash Ponds, land erosion, remediation, landslides, geosynthetics and natural fibers
4. Sustainable development – Green building/ Energy audit/ Waste management

RESOURCE PERSONS

- 1) Prof S Ramakrishna Rao, Andhra University
 - 2) Dr A K Nema, IIT Delhi
 - 3) Dr R Ravi Krishna, IIT Chennai
